From the Commissioner

New York State's tax cuts and tax reform will mean lower taxes for millions of New Yorkers for the 1989 tax year.

The continuing tax cuts are reflected in a decrease in the maximum tax rate from 8.375% to 7.875%, an increase in the standard deduction from $8,500 to $9,500 for married couples and from $5,000 to $6,000 for single taxpayers, and the elimination of the 2% additional tax on unearned income. New York City filers may also be eligible for an increased city household credit.

Filling out Form IT-201 should be easier for many filers this year. The increase in the standard deduction will make it beneficial for tens of thousands of taxpayers to switch from itemizing their deductions at the state level to claiming the standard deduction. In addition, the New York State and City of New York tax tables have been expanded to accommodate all filers with taxable incomes under $65,000.

The IT-201 packet this year also contains a copy of the shorter and simpler Form IT-200 and its line-by-line instructions. The line-by-line instructions for Form IT-200 are also included in this instruction booklet. This year's increased standard deduction amounts may be higher than your itemized deductions, so even if you itemized on your federal Form 1040, you may benefit by claiming the New York standard deduction. You also may be able to file the simpler Form IT-200. To help you figure which deduction is larger, we have included a worksheet in the instructions along with all of the other filing requirements. Be sure to review the section entitled Can You File Form IT-200 Instead of Form IT-201? It may save you time and effort in filing your 1989 return.

As always, if changes to the federal and state tax systems or changes in your financial situation result in your employer's having withheld too much or too little state income tax from your paycheck, now is the time to adjust your withholding for 1990. For example, if you claimed the tuition deduction in the past and forgot to adjust for its elimination in 1989, now is the time to adjust your withholding. To change your withholding, file Form IT-2104 with your employer. Two copies of Form IT-2104 are included in this booklet.

To take full advantage of the tax cuts and reform, review all of the changes carefully. If you need help, call our 1 800 CALL TAX hotline. Trained technicians are on hand to answer any questions you may have about filing your New York income tax return for 1989.

James W. Wetzi,
Commissioner

New York State's Tax Reform and Reduction Act of 1987

New York State's Tax Reform and Reduction Act of 1987 has already consolidated many tax benefits into a larger standard deduction, eliminated the three-column tax return, eliminated the distinction on types of income, and reduced paperwork and the number of tax forms. Further changes for the 1989 tax year are highlighted below.

Specific Changes for 1989 Include:

- Top Tax Rate Reduced

The top tax rate for 1989 was reduced to 7.875%, down from 8.375% for 1988.

- Form IT-200 Included in the Tax Packet for Form IT-201

Significant changes to the IT-200 resident income tax return may allow many IT-201 filers to use the shorter, less complicated Form IT-200 this year. As a result, we are including the Form IT-200 in the tax packet sent to taxpayers who previously filed Form IT-201. To find out if you qualify to file the Form IT-200, see Which Form To File and Can You File Form IT-200 Instead of Form IT-201? beginning on page 4 of these instructions.

- Tax Tables Expanded

The New York State and City of New York tax tables have been expanded to accommodate taxpayers with taxable income of less than $65,000. Previously, the tables covered taxable income of less than $50,000. For taxable income of $65,000 and over, the tax is figured using the schedule at the end of each table.

- Standard Deduction Continues to Increase

The New York State standard deduction was raised again for 1989.

	1987	1988	1989
Standard married deduction . . .	$5,300	$8,500	$9,500
Standard head of household deduction . . . . .	$4,600	$6,000	$7,000
Standard single deduction . . . . .	$3,600	$5,000	$6,000

- Itemized Deduction Reduced If Income Is More than $100,000

Continuing in 1989, you may not be able to claim all of your itemized deductions if your New York adjusted gross income is more than $100,000. The amount of reduction varies according to your filing status and income. For 1989 and thereafter, the percentages used to determine the reduction have been increased. For more information, see page 13 of these instructions.

- Do Not Itemize If Your Standard Deduction Is Larger

If you are like a lot of other New Yorkers, your New York standard deduction may be larger than your New York itemized deduction. So, even though you itemized on federal Form 1040, it is likely that your tax will be less if you claim the standard deduction on your New York return. You may even be able to file the shorter Form IT-200 instead of Form IT-201. To find out which deduction is larger and for Form IT-200 filing requirements, see Can You File Form IT-200 Instead of Form IT-201? on page 4 of these instructions.

- Revised Federal Income Tax Treatment of Public Employee Retirement Contributions

If you are a Tier III or Tier IV member of the New York State and Local Retirement Systems, or a New York City uniformed force member, the contributions you made on and after July 1, 1989, were not subject to federal income tax. The federal tax is deferred until your retirement benefits are paid. New York State, New York City and Yonkers taxes are not deferred, and you must add the amount you contributed on and after July 1, 1989, to the income on your New York return. For more information, see the instructions for line 22, addition A-21, on pages 10 and 11 of these instructions.

- Federal Pensions Exempt from Taxation

Beginning with 1989, pension benefits received by officers and employees of the United States government are exempt from New York State, New York City and Yonkers income taxes. The pension benefits included in your federal adjusted gross income are subtracted in figuring your New York adjusted gross income. For more information, see the instructions for line 29, subtraction S-2, on page 12 of these instructions.

- City of New York Household Credit Increased

The maximum New York City household credit amount for each federal exemption claimed was increased for those with federal adjusted gross income over $12,500 but not over $17,500. For more information, see page 15 of these instructions.

Other Changes:

- If you itemized your deductions on your federal return, we are required to report, both to you and to the Internal Revenue Service, any overpayment of income tax that we refunded to you, credited to your estimated tax account or applied to an outstanding liability during the year. To help you correctly identify filers who itemize their deductions and to help prevent incorrect assessments of additional tax and penalties, please be sure to answer the question at item B of your Form IT-201 or at item C of your Form IT-200.

- We have also added a line asking you to enter the number of exemptions you claimed on your federal return. Your entry at item E of Form IT-201 or at item F of Form IT-200 will help us ensure the accuracy of the amount of tax you pay.

Who Must File

New York residents

You must file a New York State resident return if you meet any of the following conditions:

- You have to file a federal return.
- You did not have to file a federal return but:
  - your federal filing status would have been:
  - and you had federal adjusted gross income (plus New York additions)* of more than:

single, and you can be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's federal return ..... $2,800 single, and you cannot be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's federal return or married filing joint return or married filing separate return or head of household or qualifying widow(er) ..... $4,000

* (New York additions are explained on pages 10 and 11 of these instructions; see the federal instructions to find your filing status and figure your federal adjusted gross income.)

- You want to claim a refund of any New York State, city of New York or city of Yonkers income taxes withheld from your pay.
- You are subject to the minimum income tax.
- You are subject to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions.

If you need help, call New York tax assistance toll free at 1 800 CALL TAX (1 800 225-5829) or see page 8 of these instructions.

Did You Use Federal Form 8814 or Federal Form 8615 to Report Your Child's Investment Income?

If you elected to file federal Form 8814 with your federal return, the amount of your child's investment income over $1,000 that was included in your federal gross income will be reported on your New York return and taxed at your rate. In this case, you will not file a New York return for your child. However, it will be advantageous for you to file a New York return for your child since there will not be any New York tax on the first $2,800 of your child's investment income. To qualify for filing a New York return for your child, you must first file a federal return and federal Form 8615 (instead of federal Form 8814) to report your child's investment income.

Residents of New York City and Yonkers

City taxes — If you were a New York City or Yonkers resident for the taxable year and you have to file a New York State return, report your New York City income tax or your Yonkers resident income tax surcharge on your state return.

Nonresidents of New York City and Yonkers

If you are not a New York City or Yonkers resident but you earned wages or self-employment income in either of these cities and you have to file a New York State income tax return, you must also file Form NYC-203, City of New York Nonresident Earnings Tax Return, and/or Form Y-203, City of Yonkers Nonresident Earnings Tax Return.

If you are married, you cannot file jointly on Form NYC-203 and/or Form Y-203. If you each have taxable earnings, you must each file a separate Form NYC-203 and/or Form Y-203.

Forms NYC-203 and Y-203 are due the same time as your state return and must be attached to it. For more information, see the instructions for these forms.

Partnerships

Partnerships are not subject to the New York State personal income tax but individual members of the partnership are. If your partnership has a partner who is a New York State resident, or if the partnership has any income from New York State sources, it must file Form IT-204, New York State Partnership Return. If you were a partner, transfer your share of income (or loss), deductions and adjustments from Form IT-204 to your Form IT-201. For more information see IT-204-1, Instructions for Form IT-204. If your partnership carried on a business in New York City, it may also be required to file Form NYC-204, City of New York Unincorporated Business Tax Partnership Return. For more information, see the instructions for Form NYC-204. You can get this form and its instructions by calling the NYC Department of Finance, Taxpayer Assistance, at 1 (718) 935-6000, or by visiting the NYC Department of Finance, Forms Distribution Window, 25 Elm Place, 3rd floor, Brooklyn, NY, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The NYC Department of Finance also operates an automated New York City tax forms ordering service, 24 hours a day, seven days a week; call 1 (718) 935-6739. Since New York State does not administer the New York City unincorporated business tax, do not file your NYC-204 with your state return.

Estates and Trusts

Estates and trusts are subject to the New York State personal income tax. The fiduciary for an estate or trust must file Form IT-205, New York State Fiduciary Income Tax Return. Each beneficiary of an estate or trust must include his or her share of the estate or trust income on Form IT-201. For more information on responsibilities of beneficiaries, see Beneficiaries (estates and trusts) on page 10 of these instructions.

Estimated income tax for estates and trusts — Estates and trusts are required to make estimated tax payments. However, estates are exempt from paying estimated tax for the first two years after the decedent's death. Generally, an estate or trust must pay estimated tax if the estate or trust is expected to owe, after subtracting its withholdings and credits, at least $100 in New York income tax for 1990 and can expect withholding to be less than:

- 90% of the tax shown on the 1990 return, or
- 100% of the tax shown on the 1989 return (assuming the return covered all 12 months).

A trust fiduciary who makes an election to allocate the trust's estimated tax overpayment among the trust's beneficiaries must file Form IT-205-T. For more information, see the instructions for Form IT-205.

Homeowners and Renters

If you are a New York State resident and if your household gross income was $18,000 or less, you may be entitled to a state tax credit for a part of the real property taxes or rent you paid during the year. Qualified persons 65 or older can claim a credit of up to $375. For qualified persons under 65, the maximum credit is $75. To claim the credit, complete Form IT-214, Claim for Real Property Tax Credit For Homeowners and Renters, and attach it to your return.

If you do not have to file an income tax return, you may still claim the credit by filing only Form IT-214.

For more information, see Instructions for Form IT-214 on page 24 and Publication 308, Real Property Tax Credit for Homeowners and Renters.

Deceased Taxpayers

An executor, administrator or spouse has to file a New York State return for a taxpayer who died before filing a 1989 return. If a joint federal income tax return was filed for the deceased taxpayer and the surviving spouse, a joint New York State return can be filed on Form IT-100, Form IT-200 or Form IT-201, depending on which federal form was filed. The filing due date is the same as if the taxpayer had lived.

If you are not an executor or administrator and are claiming a refund for a deceased taxpayer, you may have to file Form AU-281.17, Survivor's Affidavit. Call or write us for this form. See How to Get Forms on page 6 of these instructions.

Members of the Armed Forces

If you are a member of the military and a New York State resident, the amount of your military pay that is subject to federal income tax is also subject to New York income tax.

If your permanent home (domicile) was in New York State when you entered the military but you were assigned to duty outside the state, you are still a New York State resident and must file a resident return even if you are presently serving outside New York.

If your permanent home (domicile) was in New York State when you entered the military but you meet the conditions for nonresident status, your military pay is not subject to New York income tax.

If you are stationed in a foreign country when your return is due and you qualify for an automatic two-month extension of time to file your federal return, you are automatically granted a two-month extension to file your New York return.

For more information, see Publication 361, Military Personnel and Veterans.

City taxes — If you were a New York City or Yonkers resident when you entered the military and if your military pay is subject to New York State income tax, it is also subject to New York City or Yonkers taxes. However, if you meet the conditions for nonresident status, your military pay is not subject to the New York City or Yonkers nonresident earnings tax.

Nonresidents and Part-Year Residents

If you are not a New York State resident or if your New York State resident status changed (see Resident, Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Defined below), and you had income from New York State sources, you may have to file Form IT-203, Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, instead of Form IT-201. For more information on who must file a nonresident or part-year resident return, see the instructions for Form IT-203.

City taxes — If you changed your New York City or Yonkers resident status during the year, you must complete Form IT-360.1, Change of City Resident Status, and pay New York City resident tax or a Yonkers resident income tax surcharge for the part of the year that you lived in New York City or Yonkers. If you earned wages in one of these cities or conducted a trade or business there (either as an individual or a member of a partnership) during the part of the year that you were not a New York City or Yonkers resident, you must complete Form NYC-203, City of New York Nonresident Earnings Tax Return, or Y-203, City of Yonkers Nonresident Earnings Tax Return, and pay any tax due. For more information, see IT-360.1-1, Instructions for Form IT-360.1.

Resident, Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Defined

You may have to pay income tax as a New York State resident even if you are not considered a resident for other purposes. For income tax purposes, your resident status depends on where you were domiciled and where you maintained a permanent place of abode during the taxable year.

In general, your domicile is the place you intend to have as your permanent home. Your domicile is, in effect, the state where your permanent home is located. It is the place you intend to return to whenever you may be away (as on vacation abroad, business assignment, educational leave, or military assignment).

You can have only one domicile. Your New York domicile is not changed until you can demonstrate that you have abandoned your New York domicile and established a new permanent domicile outside of New York State.

If you move to a new location but intend to stay there only for a limited amount of time (no matter how long), your domicile does not change. For example, Mr. Green of ABC Electronics in Elmira, New York was temporarily assigned to the Atlanta, Georgia branch office for two years. After his stay in Atlanta, he returned to his job in New York.

His domicile did not change during his stay in Georgia; it remained New York State.

If your domicile is New York State and you go to a foreign country because of a business assignment by your employer, or for study, research or any other purpose, your domicile does not change unless you show that you definitely do not intend to return to New York. For more information, see Publication 362, U.S. Citizens Abroad.

A permanent place of abode is a residence (a building or structure where a person can live) you permanently maintain, whether you own it or not, and usually includes a residence your husband or wife owns or leases. A place of abode is not permanent if you maintain it only during a temporary or limited period of time for a particular purpose.

Resident — You are a New York State resident if:

- Your domicile is not New York State but you maintain a permanent place of abode in New York and spend 184 days or more in New York during the taxable year. However, if you are a member of the armed forces, and your domicile is not New York State, you are not a resident under this definition; or
- Your domicile is New York State unless you meet all three of the conditions in either Group A or Group B as follows:

Group A

  - You did not maintain any permanent place of abode in New York State during the taxable year; and
  - You maintained a permanent place of abode outside New York State during the entire taxable year; and

- You spent 90 days or less in New York State during the taxable year.

Group B

- You were in a foreign country for at least 450 days during any period of 548 consecutive days; and
- You spent 90 days or less in New York State during this 548-day period, and your spouse (unless legally separated) or minor children spent 90 days or less in New York during this 548-day period in a permanent place of abode maintained by you; and
- During the nonresident portion of the taxable year in which the 548-day period either begins or ends, you were present in New York State for no more than the number of days which bears the same ratio to 90 as the number of days in such portion of the taxable year bears to 548. This condition is illustrated by the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of days in the nonresident portion}}{548} \times 90 =$$

Maximum number of days allowed in New York State.

Nonresident — You are a New York State nonresident if you were not a resident of New York State for any part of the year.

Part-year resident — You are a New York State part-year resident if you meet the definition of resident or nonresident for only part of the year.

For more information on nonresidents and part-year residents, see the instructions for Form IT-203 and Publication 362, U.S. Citizens Abroad.

Which Form to File

If the federal income tax return you filed was:

Form 1040EZ

You should file your New York income tax return on:

Form IT-100 if you want us to figure your tax,

or

Form IT-200 if you want to figure your tax yourself or claim the real property tax credit (see Homeowners and Renters on page 3) or you want to disclaim a spouse's debt (see Collection of Debts from Your Refund, page 17).

Form 1040A

Form IT-100 if you want us to figure your tax. (You must use Form IT-200 if you are married and filing a separate federal return.)

or

Form IT-200 if you want to figure your tax yourself, or you claim the real property tax credit (see Homeowners and Renters on page 3) or you want to disclaim a spouse's debt (see Collection of Debts from Your Refund, page 17).

Form 1040

Form IT-201, but see Can You File Form IT-200 Instead of Form IT-201? to the right.

Can You File Form IT-200 Instead of Form IT-201?

Even if you filed federal Form 1040, you should file New York's shorter return, Form IT-200, instead of Form IT-201 if:

- you itemized your deductions on federal Form 1040, but your New York standard deduction is larger than your New York itemized deduction (use the worksheet on next page); and
- your income was only from wages, interest, dividends, taxable refunds of state and local income taxes or unemployment compensation; and
- your adjustments to income are only for IRA deductions, public employee retirement contributions, interest income on US government bonds or taxable refunds of state and local income taxes; and
- your taxable income is less than $65,000; and
- your only New York tax credits are the child and dependent care, household or real property tax credits, and
- your only other income taxes are full-year New York City or Yonkers income taxes; and
- you did not make estimated tax payments, you do not need to extend the time to file your return, and you are a calendar-year filer.

Which Form to File (continued)

Worksheet for Figuring Which Deduction is Larger

- a. Total itemized deductions from federal Schedule A, line 26 . . . . . a. _____
- b. State, local and foreign income taxes from federal Schedule A, lines 5 and 7 . . . . . b. _____
- c. Subtract line b from line a . . . . . c. _____
- d. Enter the standard deduction that applies to your filing status:
- Single and can be claimed as a dependent . . . . . $2,800
  - Single and cannot be claimed as a dependent . . . . . 6,000
  - Married filing joint return . . . . . 9,500
  - Married filing separate return . . . . . 4,750
  - Head of household . . . . . 7,000
  - Qualifying widow(er) . . . . . 9,500
- d. _____

If line d is larger than line c, you meet the first requirement in Can You File Form IT-200 Instead of Form IT-201? and should file Form IT-200 if you meet the other requirements. If line c is larger than line d, your tax will be less if you file Form IT-201 and take the itemized deduction. If any of the other adjustments to federal itemized deductions apply to you (see page 13 of these instructions), adjust line c appropriately.

No matter which federal form you filed, you must use New York Form IT-201 if:

- You have any of the following New York adjustments to income: subtractions for taxable social security benefits and the pension and annuity income exclusion; (the subtraction for interest income on US government bonds can be made on all New York returns); additions to income for interest income from state and local bonds (but not those of New York State and local governments within the state) and the accelerated cost recovery system (ACRS) deduction. For information on all New York adjustments to income, see New York Adjustments, page 10.

- You can claim any of these New York tax credits:
  - resident credit
  - accumulation distribution credit
  - investment credit
  - special additional mortgage recording tax credit (shareholder of electing New York S corporation only)
  - special additional mortgage recording tax credit carryover
  - solar and wind energy credit carryover
  - economic development zone credits.
- The household credit and child and dependent care credit can be claimed on all New York returns. The real property tax credit can be claimed only on Forms IT-200 and IT-201.
- You are subject to any of these taxes:
  - minimum income tax
  - separate tax on lump-sum distributions
  - add-back of investment credit on early dispositions
  - part-year New York City resident tax
  - part-year Yonkers resident income tax surcharge
  - add-back of EDZ investment tax credit
  - add-back of resident credit for taxes paid to a province of Canada.
- You are claiming a 1989 estimated tax payment or an overpayment credit from your 1988 return.
- You want to apply any part of your 1989 overpayment to your estimated tax for 1990.

- You were a New York State resident for all of 1989, but a New York City or Yonkers resident for only part of the year. For more information on change of city resident status, see IT-360.1-1, Instructions for Form IT-360.1.
- You are filing for a taxable period other than the calendar year January 1 through December 31, 1989.
- You need an extension of time to file your return.

If you did not have to file a federal return but you must file a New York return, use your federal instructions to choose the federal form you would have filed if one had been required. Then use these instructions to choose your New York form. You will also need your federal instructions to determine your filing status, your income, adjustments to income, and the number of exemptions you may claim. If you need help, see page 8 of these instructions.

Separate returns are required for some married taxpayers who file a joint federal return. If one of you was a New York State resident and the other was a nonresident or part-year resident, you must each file a separate New York return. The New York State resident must use Form IT-200 (if your joint federal return was Form 1040A) or Form IT-201 (if your joint federal return was Form 1040). The nonresident or part-year resident, if required to file a New York return, must use Form IT-203. However, if both of you choose to file as New York residents, you may file a joint New York State return. Use Form IT-200 if your joint federal return was Form 1040A; use Form IT-201 if your joint federal return was Form 1040. For the definition of resident, nonresident and part-year resident, see page 4. Some federal Form 1040 filers can use Form IT-200. See Can You File Form IT-200 Instead of Form IT-201? on page 4.

Other Forms You May Have to File

Form IT-2105, Estimated Income Tax Payment Voucher for Individuals

If you expect your 1990 tax withheld to be less than 90% of your 1990 tax and less than 100% of your 1989 tax (based upon a return covering 12 months), you may have to pay estimated tax. You do not have to pay estimated tax if you expect to owe less than $100 of New York State or New York City or Yonkers tax after deducting tax withheld and credits that you are entitled to claim. For more information, see Form IT-2105-1, Instructions for Estimated Income Tax for Individuals.

If you paid estimated tax for 1989, you will automatically receive a 1990 estimated tax packet in the mail. If you did not pay estimated tax for 1989, or do not receive your packet by the date your first payment is due (generally April 15), call or write us for forms and instructions. See How to Get Forms on page 6.

Form IT-201-ATT, Summary of Other Credits and Taxes

Complete this form if you are subject to any other New York State or New York City taxes. You can also use this form to claim other New York State credits. For more information, see Instructions for Form IT-201-ATT on page 19.

Form IT-220, Minimum Income Tax (Items of Tax Preference)

Complete this form if you have federal tax preference items such as ACRS depreciation, intangible drilling costs, depletion, or charitable contributions of appreciated property totaling more than $5,000 ($2,500 if you are married and filing separately). You may have to file Form IT-220 even if you are not required to file federal Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax - Individuals. For more information, see the instructions for Form IT-220.

Form IT-221, Disability Income Exclusion

Complete this form to figure the amount of your disability income that may be excluded from income on Form IT-201. To qualify you must have retired due to permanent and total disability and you must not have reached age 65 when your tax year ended. For more information, see Form IT-221.

Form IT-230, Separate Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions

Complete Form IT-230 if you used federal Form 4972 to figure your federal tax on a lump-sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan. For more information, see the instructions for Form IT-230.

Form IT-399, New York State Depreciation

Complete this form if you are an individual, partnership, estate or trust to figure your New York depreciation deduction for property placed in service during taxable years beginning in 1981, 1982, 1983, and 1984, and for property placed in service outside New York State in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1984 (including property on which ACRS depreciation was figured in accordance with the federal Tax Reform Act of 1986). Also use Form IT-399 to figure your adjustment for the federal ACRS deduction and the year of disposition adjustment. For more information, see Form IT-399.

Form IT-201-X, Amended Resident Income Tax Return

Generally, an amended return claiming credit for, or a refund of, an overpayment must be filed within three years of the date that the original return was filed, or within two years of the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. However, if you file an amended federal return showing a change in your taxable income, tax preference items, total taxable amount or capital gain or ordinary income portion of a lump-sum distribution, or credit for child and dependent care expenses, you must also file an amended New York State return within 90 days from the date you amend your federal return.

Other Forms You May Have to File (continued)

You must also file an amended return to correct any error on your original state return and to report changes made by the Internal Revenue Service.

If the Internal Revenue Service changes the taxable income, tax preference items, total taxable amount or capital gain or ordinary income portion of a lump-sum distribution, or disallows your refund claim or credit for child and dependent care expenses that you reported on your federal return, you must report these changes to the New York State Tax Department within 90 days from the date the Internal Revenue Service makes its final determination.

To amend your 1989 return, you must use 1989 Form IT-201-X. Since we cannot act on your amended return until we have completed the processing of all original returns, there may be some delay in processing your amended return. If you need forms, see How to Get Forms on this page.

For more information, see Publication 380, How to Amend Your New York State Income Tax Return.

When to File

File your return as soon as you can after January 1, 1990, but not later than April 16, 1990. If you file late, you may have to pay penalties and interest. See Penalties and Interest on page 7.

Extension of time to file — If you know that you cannot meet the April 16 deadline, ask for an extension of time by filing Form IT-370, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File for Individuals. The time to file will be automatically extended for four months if you file Form IT-370 on time and, if required, pay the tax you owe with it. If you do not expect to owe any tax and you are filing federal Form 4868 to extend the time to file your federal return, you can also use a copy of your Form 4868 to extend the time to file your New York return instead of filing Form IT-370. Write NY State Copy in the top margin and mail it to: NYS Income Tax,

W.A. Harriman Campus, Albany, NY 12227-0125.

When you file, you must use Form IT-201; you cannot file Fast Form IT-100 or Form IT-200.

If you are a US citizen abroad and you qualify for an automatic two-month extension of time to file your federal return, you are automatically granted a two-month extension to file your New York return.

Reminders

Refunds/Real Property Tax Credit

Even if you do not have to file a return, you should file to get a refund if New York State, New York City or Yonkers income taxes were withheld from your pay. You may also be eligible for a refund if you are qualified to claim the real property tax credit. If you qualify, file Form IT-214 to claim the refund for this credit. For more information on the real property tax credit, see Homeowners and Renters on page 3 of these instructions.

Name and Social Security Number

You must enter your name and social security number on all forms you send to us. If you are making a payment, write your social security number and 1989 income tax on your check or money order.

Whole Dollar Amounts

You may round all money items on your return to the nearest dollar. For example, round $10.49 to $10; round $10.50 to $11. If you round to the nearest dollar, round for all amounts.

Household Credit

If you are single, with federal adjusted gross income of $28,000 or less and cannot be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's federal return, you qualify for a $20 to $75 household credit.

If you are married, head of household (with qualifying person) or a qualifying widow(er) with dependent child with federal adjusted gross income of $32,000 or less and cannot be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's federal return, you qualify for a household credit of $15 to $75 plus $5 to $15 for each exemption you claim on your federal return.

If you are a New York City resident, you may also qualify for a New York City household credit.

For more information on the New York State household credit, see the instructions for line 54 on page 15 of these instructions. For more information on the New York City household credit, see the instructions for line 61 on page 15 of these instructions.

Wage and Tax Statements

Your employer must give you a wage and tax statement — either federal Form W-2 or New York State Form IT-2102. This statement shows your total earnings and the amount of New York State, New York City and Yonkers taxes withheld from your pay during the year.

If you received periodic annuity, pension, retired pay or IRA payments and income tax was withheld, the payer must give you a statement, either federal Form W-2P or New York State Form IT-2102-P. This statement shows the amount of your gross and taxable retirement plan payments, and the New York State, New York City and Yonkers tax withheld from your payments during the year.

If you received payments of lottery distributions or horse racing proceeds and income tax was withheld from those payments, you will receive federal Form W-2G or New York State Form IT-2102-G, Statement for Recipients of Certain Gambling Winnings. This statement shows your total payments and the amount of New York State, New York City and Yonkers taxes withheld during the year.

You must attach Copy 2 of your wage and tax statement(s) to the area indicated on the front of your return. If you have not received your statement by February 15, 1990, or if it is incorrect or lost, contact your employer.

Paid Preparers Must Sign Your Return

Anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it and fill in the other blanks in the paid preparer's area of your return. The preparer required to sign your return must sign it by hand; signature stamps or labels are not acceptable. If someone prepares your return and does not charge you, that person should not sign it.

Paid tax return preparers should get Publication 50, Information for Paid Preparers of New York Income Tax Returns, for more details.

Reminders (continued)

Computer Filled-In Returns

If you use a computer to fill in your return, be sure you meet these requirements:

- You must use the official income tax forms that we provide. However, you may computer-generate any form as long as it complies with the guidelines in Publication 75, Specifications for Reproduction of 1989 New York State Income Tax Forms.
- Your software must conform to current federal and state income tax laws.

Don't Delay Your Refund

We want to send your refund to you as soon as possible. You can help us by filing an error-free return. This way, we will not have to send your return back to you for your signature or ask for other information such as your wage and tax statements or your correct filing status. Please check the figures on your return and carefully follow steps 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 on pages 18 and 19 of these instructions.

Penalties and Interest

Interest — Daily compounded interest will be charged on income tax that is not paid on or before April 16, 1990, even if you received an extension of time to file your return. Interest is a charge for the use of money and may not be waived.

If we have to pay interest to you because we don't issue your refund check by July 16, 1990 (or, if your return is filed after April 16, 1990, within 3 months from the date it is filed), it also will be compounded daily. However, we will not pay interest to you if your return cannot be processed. To be processed, your return must show your name, address, social security number, signature and the information needed to mathematically verify your tax liability.

Late filing penalty — If you file late, you will be charged a penalty of 5% of the tax due for each month, or part of a month, the return is late, up to a maximum of 25%, unless you extend the time to file or attach to your return an explanation showing reasonable cause for the delay. If your return is more than 60 days late, this penalty will not be less than the lesser of $100 or 100% of the amount required to be shown as tax due on the return, reduced by any tax paid and by any credit which may be claimed. For information on getting an extension of time to file your return, see When to File on page 6 of these instructions.

Late payment penalty — If you do not pay your tax when due, you will be charged a penalty of ½ of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month it is not paid, up to a maximum of 25%. This penalty is in addition to the interest charged for late payments.

This penalty may not be charged if you attach to your return an explanation showing reasonable cause for paying late.

If you figure your tax incorrectly — You may have to pay a penalty if the tax you report on your return is less than your correct tax. If you are off by more than 10% or $2,000, whichever is more, you may have to pay this penalty. The penalty is 10% of the difference between the tax you reported and the tax you actually owe.

Underpayment of estimated tax penalty — If your 1989 withholding and estimated tax payments do not equal at least 90% of your 1989 tax or 100% of your 1988 tax (based upon a return covering 12 months), you may be subject to a penalty for underpayment of estimated income tax. Attach Form IT-2105.9, Underpayment of Estimated Income Tax by Individuals and Fiduciaries, to show how you figured the penalty, or which exceptions to the penalty apply. For more information, see the instructions for Form IT-2105.9.

Negligence penalty — If your return does not show all of the tax imposed under the Tax Law, its rules or regulations, due to negligence or intentional disregard but not with intent to defraud, you will be charged a penalty of 5% of any deficient amount. In addition, 50% of the interest due on any underpayment resulting from negligence will be added to your tax.

Fraudulent returns — If any part of a deficiency is due to fraud, you will be charged a penalty of 50% of the deficiency.

In general, a deficiency is the difference between the correct tax and the tax shown on your return. In addition, 50% of the interest due on any deficiency resulting from a fraudulent act will be added to your tax.

Frivolous returns — A penalty of up to $500 will be imposed on any person who files a frivolous tax return. A return is considered frivolous when it does not contain information needed to judge the correctness of the tax return, or reports information that is obviously and substantially incorrect, and intended to delay or impede the administration of Article 22 of the Tax Law or the processing of the return.

Information

For information or answers to your New York State tax questions, call toll free (from New York State only) 1 800 CALL TAX (1 800 225-5829). From areas outside New York State, call (518) 438-8581. Telephone assistance is available from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. To make sure that Tax Department employees give courteous responses and correct information to taxpayers, a Tax Department supervisor sometimes monitors telephone calls. No record is kept of any taxpayer's name, address or social security number.

If you have a question about the status of your refund check, see When to Call About Your Refund in the next column.

If you want to write instead of calling, address your letter to NYS Tax Department, Taxpayer Assistance Bureau, W. A. Harriman Campus, Albany, NY 12227.

When to Call About Your Refund

Generally, early filers get their refund checks first. However, if you file after April 1, you may not receive your refund check for at least 12 weeks. If you have to call to ask where your refund check is, please wait until after April 17; then call toll free (from New York State only) 1 800 443-3200. From areas outside New York State, call (518) 438-6777.

Trying to Resolve a Problem with the Tax Department?

New York State has a Problem Resolution Program for taxpayers who have been unable to resolve a problem with the Tax Department. If you have a tax problem and have made two or more attempts to resolve it without success, you may seek help from one of our Problem Resolution Officers (PROs).

You may call or write to the PRO serving your area. You can get the address and telephone number by calling us (see Information on this page).

Hotline for the Hearing and Speech Impaired

If you have a hearing or speech impairment and have access to a Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD), you can get answers to your New York State tax questions by calling our toll-free hotline 1 800 634-2110 (within New York State). Hours of operation are from 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., Monday through Friday. If you do not own a TDD, check with independent living centers or community action programs to find out where machines are available for public use.

Steps for Preparing Your Return

Prepare your federal return first; much of the information on your New York State return will be the same. In many cases when New York State and federal tax laws are similar, the New York instructions do not repeat all the requirements, but instead, explain the differences.

If you elected to file federal Form 8814 with your federal return, the amount of your child's investment income over $1,000 that was included in your federal gross income will be reported on your New York return and taxed at your rate. In this case, you will not file a New York return for your child. However, it will be advantageous for you to file a New York return for your child since there will not be any New York tax on the first $2,800 of your child's investment income. To qualify for filing a New York return for your child, you must first file a federal return and federal Form 8615 (instead of federal Form 8814) to report your child's investment income.

Step 1

Get all forms and publications you need.

If you need any forms or publications, see How to Get Forms on page 6.

Step 2

Get your tax records together.

If you received a salary or wages, get all your 1989 wage and tax statements together. These can be either New York Form IT-2102 or federal Form W-2. Only your employer can issue or correct these forms. If you have not received your wage and tax statements by February 15, or if the form you received is incorrect, contact your employer.

If you had tax withheld from annuities, pensions, retired pay or IRA payments, get together all of your New York Form(s) IT-2102-P or federal Form(s) W-2P. If you had tax withheld from your lottery distributions or horse racing proceeds, you will need your New York State Form IT-2102-G.

If you paid income taxes to another state, a local government within another state, the District of Columbia or a province of Canada, get a copy of the income tax return you filed with that taxing authority.

If you made payments during the year for your New York State, New York City or Yonkers estimated tax, check your payments or credits that were applied to your 1989 tax year.

If you plan to take any credits or deductions, get all the supporting information and records you will need.

Step 3

Fill in your return.

Fill in your return using the line-by-line instructions for Form IT-201 that begin on page 9. Then continue with Step 4 on page 18.

Line-by-Line Instructions for Form IT-201

All information on your return, except for your mailing address, should be for the calendar year January 1 through December 31, 1989, or for your fiscal year. If you are filing for a fiscal year, enter the month and day your tax year began, and the month, day and year that it ended at the top of the front page.

Make your entries in the white areas of Form IT-201.

Name and Address Box

Do not write in this box or attach your mailing label until you have completed and checked your return.

Step 5 on page 18 of these instructions will tell you how to complete this section of your return.

Item A

Filing status

Show your filing status by checking only one box. In nearly all cases, you must use the same filing status on your state return that you used on your federal return. If you did not have to file a federal return, use the same filing status that you would have used for federal income tax purposes.

The only exception to this rule applies to married taxpayers who file a joint federal return where one spouse is a New York State resident and the other spouse is a nonresident or part-year resident. In this case you must either:

- 1) file separate New York returns using filing status ③; or
- 2) file jointly, as if you both were New York State residents, using filing status ②.

Item B

Did you itemize your deductions on your federal return?

If you itemized your deductions on your 1989 federal income tax return, check the Yes box. If you claimed the standard deduction on your federal return, check the No box.

Item C

Can you be claimed as a dependent?

If you can be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's federal return, check the Yes box. If not, check the No box.

Item D

Do you want a tax packet sent to you next year?

Many taxpayers who pay others to prepare their returns do not use the income tax packets mailed to them each year. If you do not need a packet mailed to you next year, check the box.

The Tax Department will then send you a mailing label which you or your tax preparer should use on your 1990 return.

By telling us that you do not need a packet next year, you will help reduce printing and mailing costs.

Item E

Federal Exemptions

Enter in the box the number of exemptions claimed on line 6e of your federal return.

Federal Income and Adjustments

The amounts on lines 1 through 19 must be the same as the income, (losses), total adjustments and adjusted gross income reported on your federal return.

If you did not have to file a federal return, report the same income you would have reported for federal income tax purposes.

Line 1

Wages, salaries, tips, etc.

For more information, see Instructions for Form NYC-202. You can get this form and its instructions by calling the NYC Department of Finance, Taxpayer Assistance, at 1 (718) 935-6000, or by visiting the NYC Department of Finance, Forms Distribution Window, 25 Elm Place, 3rd floor, Brooklyn, NY from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The NYC Department of Finance also operates an automated New York City tax forms ordering service, 24 hours a day, seven days a week; call 1 (718) 935-6739. Since New York State does not administer the New York City unincorporated business tax, do not file your NYC-202 with your state return.

Line 17

Add lines 1 through 16 and enter the total on line 17.

Line 18*Total federal adjustments to income

Enter the total adjustments to income reported on federal Form 1040, line 30. These include penalty on early withdrawal of savings, IRA deduction and spouse's IRA deduction, as well as other adjustments. Write each adjustment and its amount in the white area on line 18. If you need more room, make a list showing each adjustment and its amount and attach the list to your New York return.

If you did not have to file a federal return, claim the same adjustments to income you would have claimed for federal income tax purposes.

Line 19*Federal adjusted gross income

Subtract line 18 from line 17 and enter the result on line 19. This amount must be the same as the adjusted gross income from your federal return.

New York Adjustments/ New York Adjusted Gross Income

Enter any of the listed additions to or subtractions from your federal adjusted gross income. For more information on additions and subtractions, see Publication 382, How to Figure Your New York State Additions and Subtractions.

Partners — If you have income from a partnership, include any New York additions and subtractions that apply to that income. Determine your share of partnership additions and subtractions from the partnership return, Form IT-204.

Beneficiaries (estates and trusts) — If you have income from an estate or trust, any New York additions and subtractions that apply to that income, as well as any additions to or subtractions from federal itemized deductions, will be shown in your share of a single fiduciary adjustment. If the adjustment is a net addition, enter this amount on line 22; if the adjustment is a net subtraction, enter this amount on line 29. Identify this item as a fiduciary adjustment.

If you filed federal Form 4970, the income you reported there is not included on Form IT-201, line 12. Since the Internal Revenue Code considers the distribution part of federal gross income, you must include it on line 22 and be sure to identify the source of this income as Form 4970 income.

S corporation shareholders — If you are a shareholder of a federal S corporation for which the election to be a New York S corporation was in effect for the taxable year, include any of the following additions and subtractions that apply to your pro rata share of S corporation items of income, loss or deduction. Additions A-17 and A-18 and subtraction S-21 do not apply to you since they apply only to nonelecting S corporations. If the election to treat the corporation as a New York S corporation terminated during the taxable year, you must allocate those items (see Publication 382 for more information). Obtain your share of S corporation items of income, loss and deduction from the S corporation's Form CT-3-S.

If you were not eligible to make the election to treat your corporation as a New York S corporation because the corporation was not subject to Article 9-A franchise tax, include any of the additions and subtractions below that apply to your pro rata share of S corporation items of income, loss or deduction. Additions A-16, A-17, A-18 and A-19, and subtractions S-20 and S-21 do not apply to you since they apply only to electing and nonelecting New York S corporations.

If gain or loss is recognized on your federal income tax return due to the disposition of stock or indebtedness of an S corporation that did not elect to be a New York S corporation for any taxable year after December 31, 1980, make addition A-19 or subtraction S-20, whichever applies to you.

You must make the adjustments for the taxable year of the S corporation that ends in your taxable year.

New York Additions

Line 20*Interest income on state and local bonds (but not those of New York State and local governments within the state)

Enter any interest income on state and local bonds (but not those of New York State and local governments within the state) that you received or that was credited to you during 1989 if it was not included in your federal adjusted gross income.

Line 21*Accelerated cost recovery system (ACRS) deduction

Enter your accelerated cost recovery system (ACRS) deduction from Form IT-399, line 1, column G (section 612(b)(25) of the Tax Law). This adjustment must be made for property placed in service during taxable years beginning in 1981, 1982, 1983, and 1984. It also must be made for property placed in service outside New York State in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1984 (including property on which ACRS depreciation was figured in accordance with the Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986), except for property subject to the provisions of section 280F of the Internal Revenue Code (such as luxury automobiles). Also, see the instructions for line 28 on page 11 of these instructions.

Line 22*Other additions

If you are a public employee who made retirement contributions during 1989, see addition A-21 on page 11.

Identify any of the following additions that apply to you by writing the item number and the amount of each addition in the white area on line 22. Enter the total amount of these other additions on line 22 in the money column.

A-1 Interest or dividend income received by you or credited to you during 1989, on bonds or securities of any United States authority, commission or instrumentality that federal laws exempt from federal income tax but not on state income tax (section 612(b)(2) of the Tax Law).

A-2 Income taxes that were deducted from your federal gross income (section 612(b)(3) of the Tax Law). For example, if you operated a business and deducted income taxes on your federal return as an expense of doing business, include these taxes on line 22.

Line 30

Add lines 24 through 29 and enter the total on line 30.

Line 31

New York adjusted gross income

Subtract line 30 from line 23 and enter the result on line 31.

Tax Computation

Fill in lines 32 through 46 only if you itemized your deductions on federal Form 1040. If you took the standard deduction on federal Form 1040, or you did not have to file a federal return, skip lines 32 through 46 and transfer the front page, line 31 amount to line 47. You can also skip lines 32 through 46 if you filled in the Worksheet for Figuring Which Deduction is Larger, on page 5 of these instructions, and you take the standard deduction (New York) on line 48.

Lines 32 through 40

Enter on each line the total of each group of itemized deductions (medical and dental, taxes, moving expenses, etc.) and the total itemized deductions exactly as you reported them on your federal Schedule A (Form 1040), Itemized Deductions.

Line 41

State, local and foreign income taxes included on line 33.

Enter the total of state and local income taxes from federal Schedule A, line 5, and foreign income taxes from federal Schedule A, line 7.

Exception for city of New York nonresident earnings tax — If you included the New York City nonresident earnings tax on line 33, you do not have to include on line 41 the difference between the New York City nonresident earnings tax on wages figured at the old rate (0.25%) and the tax figured at the current rate (0.45%). To figure the amount you have to include on line 41, multiply your New York City taxable wages (from Form NYC-203, line 3) by .0020 and subtract it from your state, local and foreign income tax deduction included on line 33.

Example — Your line 33 amount includes your New York City nonresident earnings tax as well as other state, local and foreign income taxes, for a total income tax deduction of $1,000. Your taxable wages from Form NYC-203, line 3, are $16,000. Multiply $16,000 by .0020 which equals $32; the amount you do not have to include on line 41. Then subtract $32 from $1,000 to find the difference of $968, the amount to enter on line 41.

The above also applies to the New York City nonresident earnings tax on net earnings from self-employment. The amount you do not have to include on line 41 is the difference between the tax figured at the old rate (0.375%) and the tax figured at the current rate (0.65%). To figure the amount you have to include on line 41, multiply your New York City taxable net earnings from self-employment (Form NYC-203, line 7) by .00275 and subtract it from your state, local and foreign income tax deduction included on line 33.

Line 42

Subtract line 41 from line 40 and enter the result.

If you made no entry on line 41, enter the amount from line 40 on line 42.

Line 43

Partners — Include on line 43 the additions and subtractions described below that apply to your share of partnership deduction items (if not included in your New York additions and subtractions on the front page). Determine your share of partnership items from the partnership return, Form IT-204.

S corporation shareholders — If you are a shareholder of a federal S corporation for which the election to treat the corporation as a New York S corporation was in effect for the taxable year, or if you were not eligible to make the election to treat your corporation as a New York S corporation because the corporation is not subject to Article 9-A franchise tax, include on line 43 additions A through C and subtractions D through G and I, described below, that apply to your pro rata share of S corporation items of income, loss or deduction. If the election to be a New York S corporation terminated during the taxable year, you must allocate those items (see Publication 382, How to Figure Your New York Additions and Subtractions, for more information). If an S corporation short year is involved, you must allocate those deductions (see Publication 382, How to Figure Your New York Additions and Subtractions, for more information).

I Five percent of your deduction for interest related to corporate acquisitions (section 615(c)(7) of the Tax Law). If this subtraction applies, complete new Form IT-244, Acquisition Information Report.

If line 00 is at least $100 and, in addition, represents more than 10% of the tax shown on your return, or you underpaid your estimated tax liability for any payment period, you may owe a penalty. However, you are not subject to a penalty if your 1989 prepayments equal at least 100% of your 1988 tax (based upon a return covering 12 months). Attach Form IT-2105.9, Underpayment of Estimated

Income Tax by Individuals and Fiduciaries, to Form IT-201 to show how you figured the penalty or which exceptions apply. If you owe a penalty, check the box at line 81 and enter the amount of the penalty. For more information, see the instructions for Form IT-2105.9.

Do not include any other penalty or interest amounts on line 81. If you include penalties or interest with your payment, identify and enter these amounts in the right margin of the back page of Form IT-201.

Now continue with Step 4 below

Step 4

Check the figures on your return and any attachments.

Step 5

Complete the top of the front page of your return.

Mailing label— Remove the peel-off label from the cover of your packet and place it in the name and address box at the top of your return. Check the label to make sure the information on it is complete and correct:

Social security information	Form filed last year	Carrier route designation
Name	School district code	County
Number and street	City	State
City	State	ZIP code

At the top of the label there is a series of numbers which shows your social security information, a single letter that indicates the form you filed last year, and the carrier route (CR) designation for the post office. The number sign (#) that appears on some labels at the right of the school district code is for mail-sorting purposes only

- If your name (or your spouse's name) or address is wrong, cross it out and make the corrections directly on the label.
- If any other information is incorrect or missing — or if you do not have a mailing label — enter the correct information in the white spaces. If you file a joint return and you and your spouse have different last names, separate the names with the word and (e.g., Brown, Mary L. and Smith, John C.). (Your social security number(s) is printed in the upper left corner of the label; your county of residence is in the lower right corner.) If this information is not on your label, enter it in the white spaces at the top of the form.

School district name and code number

Enter the name and code number of your public school district. This is the district where you were a resident on December 31, 1989. School districts and code numbers are on pages 43 through 46 of these instructions. If you do not know the name of your school district, contact your nearest public school.

You must enter your school district and code number even if you were absent from the school district temporarily, if the school your children attended was not in your school district, or if you had no children attending school. School aid may be affected if the school district or code number is not correct.

Permanent home address

Enter your permanent home address within New York State on December 31, 1989, if it is not the same as the address on your mailing label

We ask for your permanent home address to verify your school district name and code number, which are used in figuring state aid to local school districts.

Your permanent home address is the address of the dwelling place in New York State where you actually live, whether you or your spouse own or rent it. A summer or vacation home is not your permanent home.

Your permanent home address is not always the same as the mailing address that is entered on your income tax return. For example, you may use a post office box number for your mailing address; this is not your permanent home address.

- If you use a paid preparer and you use the preparer's address as your mailing address, enter the address of your permanent home in the space provided.
- If you are a permanent resident of a nursing home, enter the nursing home address as your permanent home address.
- If you are in the armed forces and your permanent home was in New York State when you entered the military, enter your New York permanent home address regardless of where you are stationed.
- If you are married and maintain separate New York State residences and are filing separate New York State returns, enter as your permanent home address the address of your own residence.
- If you moved after December 31, 1989, enter your permanent home address as of December 31, 1989, not your current home address.

For additional information, see Publication 45, Permanent Home Address and School District Information.

Death of taxpayer — If a taxpayer is deceased, enter the decedent's first name and date of death.

If you do not have a mailing label, enter all of the following information on the lines at the top of the front page of your return:

- name and address (both names if filing a joint return);
- permanent home address (if different from mailing address);
- if taxpayer is deceased (enter the decedent's first name and date of death);
- social security number(s);
- New York State county of residence (on December 31, 1989);
- school district name and code number.

Step 6

Sign and date your return at the bottom right of the back page.

You must sign and date your return. If you are married and filing a joint return, you must both sign it. Your return cannot be processed if you do not sign it.

You should keep a copy of your return and attachments in a safe place in case you need to refer to them at a later date. If someone prepares your return for you, be sure to get a copy for your records.

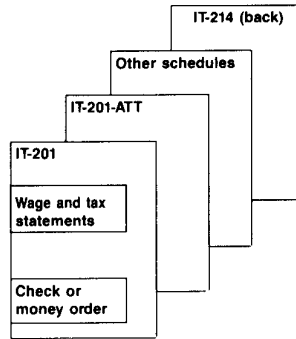

If the return is for someone who died and there is no surviving spouse to sign it, the name and address of the person signing it must be printed or typed below the signature.

Paid preparer must also sign your return

If you pay someone to prepare your return, the paid preparer must also sign it and fill in the other blanks in the paid preparer's area of your return. A person who prepares your return and does not charge you should not fill in the paid preparer's area.

4 Form IT-214, back page facing forward (front page facing out on back).

- If you have to write to us, attach your letter to the front of your return.

- enter your dependent exemption amount on line 50 of Form IT-201?
- use the correct tax table(s) and column(s)?
- figure your New York State child and dependent care credit by entering the number of qualifying persons cared for in 1989 and the amount of federal credit for child and dependent care in the boxes on line 53 of Form IT-201?
- claim any adjustments or credits that you may qualify for?
- sign your return (both husband and wife must sign a joint return)?
- attach Copy 2 of your wage and tax statement(s) to the area indicated on the front of your return?
- attach Form IT-201-ATT if you are claiming other New York State credits, or if you are subject to other New York State or New York City taxes?
- make your check or money order payable to New York State income tax for the full amount you owe?
- write your social security number and 1989 income tax on your check or money order?

Step 7

Attachments

- Attach Copy 2 of your wage and tax statement(s), and your check or money order if you owe any tax, to the areas indicated on the front of your return as illustrated in the next column. (Please staple once only.)
- Attach any other forms and schedules you used to the back of your return. Staple once only in the upper left corner in the following order:
  - 1 Form IT-201-ATT;
  - 2 other New York State forms in form number order (but not Form IT-214 — see 4 in the next column);
  - 3 any other schedules you used or prepared yourself, including copies of federal schedules; and

Step 8

Checklist

Before you mail your return, a quick check will help you avoid common errors that may delay your refund. Did you:

- attach your peel-off label? If you do not have a label, did you enter your name, address, social security number(s), county of residence, school district name and school district code number at the top of your return?
- enter your permanent home address (if different from your mailing address)?
- check your filing status box?
- check the Yes or No boxes at items B and C of Form IT-201?
- enter the number of exemptions claimed from your federal return at item E?
- check the Standard or Itemized deduction box on line 48 of Form IT-201?

Step 9

Use the preaddressed mailing envelope

To speed your refund, use the preaddressed envelope that came with your tax packet. If you are claiming a refund, mark an "X" in the box on the front of the envelope. If you do not have a preaddressed envelope, address your envelope —

If you qualify, figure this credit on Form IT-112-R, Resident Tax Credit, and transfer the amount to Form IT-201-ATT, line 1. Attach Form IT-112-R and a copy of the tax return filed with the other state, or province of Canada, to your New York State return. For more information, see Form IT-112-R. Section 606(g)(6) provides that any unused credit can be carried over to the following year or years. Resolving Tax Problems

The best ways to avoid tax problems are to keep accurate tax records and to stay on top of current tax requirements. Inside this booklet is information that can help you do both; it refers to free publications you can order and gives toll-free numbers you can call for answers to your specific questions.

Most tax problems can be resolved informally. If your refund is late, call our toll-free refund information number; if you receive a tax deficiency notice that you think is in error, promptly call the number listed on the notice for guidance. Listed below is a toll-free number for ordering any forms you might need.

If you have made two or more attempts to resolve your problem and feel that you aren't getting anywhere, you may want to turn to our Problem Resolution Program, which is described on page 8 of this booklet. The program is set up specifically for taxpayers who have tried to resolve their problems through the normal channels but have been unsuccessful.

Only a relative handful of tax problems fail to be resolved by these informal means. However, if you are issued a Notice of Deficiency or a refund denial and you feel that the Tax Department has made a mistake, you still have a number of options available to you:

— You can request a conciliation conference through the Bureau of Conciliation and Mediation Services. The conference is conducted informally by a conferee who issues an order that is binding on the Tax Department, but not on you (you can appeal by filing a petition for a formal hearing, as explained below). To set up a conference, get a Request for Conciliation Conference by calling toll free 1 800 462-8100 or by writing to the Bureau of Conciliation and Mediation Services, NYS Tax Department, W.A. Harriman Campus, Albany, NY 12227.

— You can request a small claims hearing before an impartial presiding officer if the disputed amount is within certain dollar limitations set by the Rules of Practice and Procedure. The presiding officer's decision is final, but at any time before the end of the small claims hearing, you can request a transfer to a formal hearing before an administrative law judge. A copy of the Rules of Practice and Procedure will be sent to you when you request a petition form as explained below.

— You can file a petition for a tax appeals hearing. The hearing is held before an administrative law judge, and both you and the Tax Department may appeal the judge's decision to the Tax Appeals Tribunal. The Tax Department cannot seek a review of the Tribunal's decision, but you can by instituting an Article 78 proceeding in the Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court. You can get the petition forms by writing to the Division of Tax Appeals, Riverfront Professional Tower, 500 Federal Street, 4th Floor, Troy, NY 12180-2894.
