Sales for resale; newspapers sold over the counter and by subscription; magazines by subscription; food for human consumption; manufacturing machinery; medicines by prescription; certain nonprescription medicines; sales to exempt entities; materials, tools, and fuel for industrial and agricultural production or in the fishing industry; air and/or water pollution abatement or certified items; services between wholly-owned entities; trade-ins; returned goods taxed at 6%; aircraft repair and replacement parts; sales of aircraft having a maximum certificated take-off weight of 6,000 lbs. or more; oxygen, blood, artificial devices, crutches, and wheelchairs; clothing under $75; and sales of cloth and components used in the noncommercial production of clothing. For a complete list of sales and use tax exemptions, refer to Conn. Gen. Stat. Sec. 12-412.

Line 6 - Add Line 5 across, Columns 1 and 2. Enter the total on Line 6.

Line 7 - Credits. To receive authorized tax credits for any prior period, an amended return must have been filed and a credit notice received from the Connecticut Department of Revenue Services for the period(s) the overpayment was made. The credit notice must be attached to your return. Enter advance payment credits on this line.

Line 8 - Subtract Line 7 from Line 6. Enter the difference.

Line 9 - Penalty for late payment: 15% of the tax due or $50, whichever is greater.

Interest: If this is a late or amended return, interest should be computed at the rate of 1% per month, or fraction of a month, from the due date until the date of payment. Interest is based on the amount that should have been remitted on time.

If the total Connecticut tax you have paid is greater than the amount you owe, do not subtract the overpayment from the New York State tax due. Under no circumstances may you offset an overpayment to one state against the tax due the other.
