General information

What is the security officer training tax credit?

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, Tax Law sections 26 and 606(ii) provide for a security officer training tax credit for qualified building owners employing qualified security officers. The security officer training tax credit is available to taxpayers subject to tax under Article 22 (personal income tax); Article 9 (corporation tax); Article 9-A (franchise tax on business corporations); Article 32 (franchise tax on banking corporations); or Article 33 (franchise taxes on insurance corporations). Taxpayers subject to tax under Article 22 should complete Form IT-631. Taxpayers subject to tax under Article 9, 9-A, 32, or 33 should complete Form CT-631, Claim for Security Officer Training Tax Credit.

The credit amount equals $3000 multiplied by the sum of the number of qualified security officers providing protection for a building or buildings owned by a taxpayer. In the case of a qualified security officer not employed for a full year, the amount of the credit is prorated to reflect the length of employment. If the credit exceeds the tax for that tax year, the excess credit is treated as an overpayment to be credited or refunded without interest.

The amount of credit allowed for the current tax year is allocated by the New York State Office of Homeland Security. For rules and regulations regarding the credit, access the New York State Office of Homeland Security Web site at www.security.state.ny.us.

Do I qualify for this credit?

You may be eligible to claim the security officer training tax credit on Form IT-631 if you have received a certificate of tax credit from the New York State Office of Homeland Security, are subject to tax under Article 22, and are classified as one of the following taxpayers:

- fiduciary of an estate or trust,
- partner in a partnership (including member of a limited liability company (LLC) if the LLC is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes),
- shareholder of a New York S corporation, or
- beneficiary.
