

Exemption Certificate for Occupancy By Government Employees

This form may only be used by government employees of the United States, New York State, or political subdivisions of New York State.

Name of hotel, short-term rental unit operator, or booking service		Dates of occupancy
		From:	To:
Address (number and street)	City	State	ZIP code
		Country

Certification: I certify that I am an employee of the department, agency, or instrumentality of New York State, the United States government, or the political subdivision of New York State indicated below; that the charges for the occupancy of the above business on the dates listed have been or will be paid for by that governmental entity; and that these charges are incurred in the performance of my official duties as an employee of that governmental entity. I certify that the above statements are true, complete, and correct, and that no material information has been omitted. I make these statements and issue this exemption certificate with the knowledge that this document provides evidence that state and local sales or use taxes do not apply to a transaction or transactions for which I tendered this document, and that willfully issuing this document with the intent to evade any such tax may constitute a felony or other crime under New York State Law, punishable by a substantial fine and a possible jail sentence. I understand that the vendor is a trustee for, and on account of, New York State and any locality with respect to any state or local sales or use tax the vendor is required to collect from me; that the vendor is required to collect such taxes from me unless I properly furnish this certificate to the vendor; and that the vendor must retain this certificate and make it available to the Tax Department upon request. I also understand that the Tax Department is authorized to investigate the validity of tax exemptions claimed and the accuracy of any information entered on this document.

Instructions

Who may use this certificate

If you are an employee of an entity of New York State or the United States government and you are on official New York State or federal government business and renting a room or rooms in a hotel or short-term rental unit, you may use this form to certify the exemption from paying state-administered New York State and local sales taxes (including the $1.50 unit fee in New York City).

New York State governmental entities include any of its agencies, instrumentalities, public corporations, or political subdivisions.

Agencies and instrumentalities include any authority, commission, or independent board created by an act of the New York State Legislature for a public purpose. Examples include:

- New York State Department of Taxation and Finance
- New York State Department of Education

Public corporations include municipal, district, or public benefit corporations chartered by the New York State Legislature for a public purpose or in accordance with an agreement or compact with another state. Examples include:

- Empire State Development Corporation
- New York State Canal Corporation
- Industrial Development Agencies and Authorities

Political subdivisions include counties, cities, towns, villages, and school districts.

The United States of America and its agencies and instrumentalities are also exempt from paying New York State sales tax. Examples include:

- United States Department of State
- Internal Revenue Service

Other states of the United States and their agencies and political subdivisions do not qualify for sales tax exemption. Examples include:

- the city of Boston
- the state of Vermont

To the government representative or employee renting the room or rooms in a hotel or short-term rental unit

Complete all information requested on the form. Provide the completed Form ST-129 to the hotel operator, short-term rental unit operator, or booking service upon booking or check in. You must also provide the operator or booking service with proper identification. Sign and date the exemption certificate. You may pay your bill with cash, a personal check or credit/debit card, or a government-issued voucher or credit card.

Note: If you stay at more than one location while on official business, you must complete an exemption certificate for each location. If you are in a group traveling on official business, each person must complete a separate exemption certificate and give it to the hotel operator, short-term rental unit operator, or booking service.

To the hotel operator, short-term rental unit operator, or booking service

Keep the completed Form ST-129 as evidence of exempt occupancy by New York State and federal government employees who are on official business and staying at your place of business. The certificate should be presented to you when the occupant checks in or upon booking.

The certificate must be presented no later than 90 days after the last day of the first period of occupancy. If you accept this certificate after 90 days, you have the burden of proving the occupancy was exempt. You must keep this certificate for at least three years after the later of:

- the due date of the last sales tax return to which this exemption certificate applies; or
- the date when you filed the return.

This exemption certificate is valid if the government employee is paying with one of the following:

- cash
- personal check or credit/debit card
- government-issued voucher or credit card

Do not accept this certificate unless the employee presenting it shows appropriate and satisfactory identification.

Note: New York State and the United States government are not subject to locally imposed and administered hotel occupancy taxes, also known as local bed taxes.

Misuse of this certificate

Misuse of this exemption certificate may subject you to serious civil and criminal sanctions in addition to the payment of any tax and interest due. These include:

- a penalty equal to 100% of the tax due;
- a $50 penalty for each fraudulent exemption certificate issued; and
- criminal felony prosecution, punishable by a substantial fine and a possible jail sentence.

Substantial penalties will result from misuse of this certificate.
