The withholding tax shown on your New York State fiduciary tax return does not match the withholding tax reported by the persons or entities that paid income to your estate or trust.

To prove the amount of taxes withheld that you have claimed on your return, send us all of the following that show taxes withheld for New York State, New York City, or Yonkers:

– Forms 1099
– Forms W-2
– Any other withholding tax statements

It is important that you respond. If we do not hear from you, you will not receive the refund you requested.
